DAINTY LITTLE MISSES WHO WERE HONORED AT A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Misses Elizabeth and Mary Louise Fulkerson.

The beautiful grounds surrounding the group of summer cottages at the Peery camp were the setting for an outdoor birthday party on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. D. H. Peery presided over a large group of little tots who were asked in compliment to Mrs. Peery's two granddaughters, Elizabeth and Mary Louise Fulkerson, whose birthdays occur so near they celebrate together. Elizabeth had spent nine summers yesterday and Mary Louise's birthday follows on August 7. Mrs. Peery was assisted in this delightful affair by her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Richards, and her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Joseph S. Peery of Salt Lake, Mrs. Frank Peery and Miss Amy Smith of Chicago, who is Mrs. Peery's guest for the summer. Taylor and John Peery of Porterville, Cal., who are house guests of their grandmother, were present to add their quota to the outdoor games that were played. A dainty lunch was served on long tables under the pine and maple trees and they were artistic in pink and white Dorothy Perkins rosebuds and surrounded by twenty-four of Ogden's handsome lads and dainty lassies.

acadey. Sister Eileen is well known and well beloved, having been a teacher at the academy several years back.

BOLD INTRUDER ORDERED AWAY

On Monday night, at 11:30, a man endeavored to force his way into the home of Julius O. Meyers, at 453 Twenty-eighth street. Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. E. S. Weir, of Anaconda, Mont., who was visiting with Mrs. Meyers, were also in the house. The prowler first tried to get in through the kitchen window and, not succeeding, went to the bedroom window where he pried the screen loose. Mrs. Weir confronted the man standing by the bedroom window, but the fellow made no attempt to run and did not leave the place until ordered away. The police were promptly notified but found no trace of the man. Mrs. Meyers is now in possession of a gatling gun and says she is going to use it on the next "peeping Tom."

CROPS LARGE AND LABOR SCARCE

Preparing for the greatest crop output in the history of the plant, the Utah Cannery association, through H. L. Herrington, the president, has just completed a survey of this territory. He reports the crops very large. Whether the crops can be handled depends on the ability to get the required labor. That is the serious problem and one that will handicap all lines of industry. With the help of the school boards and labor organizations, Mr. Herrington feels that the problem will be solved, in spite of the acute shortage of labor.

Week-End Jaunts, Picnics, Motor Trips And Camping Parties Hold Sway

The glorious golden sunshine of midsummer is luring both youth and age into the beautiful out of doors, and nearly all formal social functions have given place to the picnic, motor trip, week-end jaunt and camping party. Many have yielded to the call of the sea and the nearby ranch and lake side have taken an unusual quota this year. Of particular interest was the celebration at Glenwood on Pioneer day, when those who helped in the making of Utah's history near seventy years ago were the honored guests of the loyal daughters who have banded together for the preservation of all that pertains to the early pioneer life.

Campers In Lost Creek

Mrs. J. H. Thomas and her two daughters, Dorothy and Margery, are at Lost Creek for a ten days' stay and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Turner are there for an indefinite period.

At The Hermitage and Canyon Camps

BREAKFAST IS PRETTY EVENT

The Alps are supposed to play a fairly important part in the life of Switzerland, but no more important than the part the beautiful canyons play in the life of Ogden. Acent of this was the unusually interesting breakfast given on Wednesday, the 25, by Miss Ellen Thomas at her cozy camp home near the Hermitage, where the faculty of the Ogden conservatory of music was bidden for a day's outing together.

Promptly at noon and beneath the trees the guests were seated around a flower laden table, where a dainty repast was enjoyed. Those included in this charming affair were Mr. Squier Coop of Salt Lake, Mrs. Wm. A. Corn, late of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John Culley, Miss Carrie Browning, Miss Rachael Farley, Miss Vera Frey, Miss Louise Pierce and Mr. Lester Hinchcliff, all of Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Matson came up from Salt Lake on Saturday last and remained over Pioneer day at the Hermitage.

Among those from distant shores who are taking advantage of camp life at Wildwood are Mrs. C. E. Beardsley of San Francisco, Dr. Jean McBurney of Oakland, Calif., and Miss Marian Lombard of Reno, Nevada. They expect to remain until late in the fall.

Mrs. Annie T. Dee is surrounded by her family at Greycliff Lodge, which is one of the attractive beauty spots in Ogden Canyon.

Mr. Lester Taylor, who was injured on the Bamberger line last September, has returned from the L. D. S. hospital and is now with his par-lows, and en route home Miss Marsh and her mother visited a short time in Cheyenne, Wyo. Miss Marsh is one of Ogden's talented pianists and is a popular member of the younger social set.

ents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor at Wildwood.

Among those who are enjoying their cottages at the Hermitage camp are Mr. and Mrs. William Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Treseder.

Mrs. Jule Leggett and her two children and Miss Florence Dorey of Salt Lake were guests of Mrs. J. W. Paddock at her canyon cottage, "Medora," this week.

On Sunday last Miss Ada Moran motored up from Salt Lake and is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Hume at her cottage "Linger-Longer" at Wildwood in the canyon.

Mrs. C. H. Barrett of Salt Lake accompanied by her son, have joined the summer colony at Wildwood.

FROM SALT LAKE CITY

Miss Lucy Clark of Salt Lake City came up on Wednesday last to meet her brother, Mr. Edward Clark, who is the house guest of his sister, Mrs. J. B. Downs, before her departure for Stockton, California, which city she now expects to make her future home.

UNIQUE GARDEN PARTY

Unique indeed was the garden party given in Washington square some weeks ago for the benefit of the "National League for Women's Service."

Those who have visited the old park remember the arch which furnished an ideal background for this interesting fete which included canteen demonstrations, games for children, dancing and, of course, refreshments, but the feature that counted was the entrance fee. "You are invited to bring your favorite vegetables as a contribution instead of an admission ticket," read the invitation, and the vegetables were then auctioned off by Marie Dressler, the foremost comedienne of this day. Many a bunch of carrots brought an extravagant price and baskets of onions, too, were exchanged for Mrs. E. H. Harriman's gold.

The whole scheme was worthy of the cause it served and netted to the league a splendid total. Every city could adopt this scheme with profit.

ON COAST VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. William Booker and children have gone to California to visit relatives.

MOTOR FROM POCATELLO.

Robert Watson, Joseph Beck and J. F. Byfield of Pocatello, motored down during the week and are spending a few days with Ogden and Salt Lake friends.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

When the annual outing of the Historical society was held recently at the lovely canyon home of Mrs. Stillwell in Ogden gorge, Mrs. William Meal, the newly elected president, had charge, and the following responded to the roll call: Mesdames Adams, Richsel, Meal, Malson, Stillwell, Carr, Murphy, Voorhees, Perkins, Gillies, Malone, Decker, S. S. Smith, Hunter, Vogel, McGee, Reynolds, Gunnell, Corey, Canse, Knisely, Kabbell and Matson, Miss Erb and Miss Seaman. A letter of greeting from Mrs. Gordon, regretting her inability to be present, was read, and account was given of all absent members, loving mention being made of Mrs. Gosling, who passed away since the annual meeting of the society. The gathering was quite informal, and after the bounteous luncheon had been thoroughly enjoyed, the afternoon hours were spent doing needlework and listening to music and recitations, all agreeing that no more pleasant place
